About

Established in 2003, Campbell Gentry is a leading independent public affairs consultancy. Led by Simon Gentry, the company brings together the very best policy experts and public affairs professionals to advise and help companies and non-profit organisations to communicate their messages to government and the wider stakeholder community.

Our primary objective is to deliver outstanding public affairs results for clients. Over the years we have provided strategic counsel and implemented objective-oriented public affairs and stakeholder outreach programmes for a range of complex and sophisticated corporate clients in the areas of financial services, healthcare, technology, intellectual property, education, nutrition and sport.

ParliMetrics, our pioneering data driven parliamentary strategy tool is unique and will transform how you manage your relationship with both MPs and Peers.

Our public affairs management programme, LEAD, will ensure that you and your company is in the vanguard of public affairs best practice.
